WANTED:—To trade a New Champion sewing machine, never been used, for a cow. Apply at this office.

Rev. Theodore Reid of Advance preached in the Methodist church Sunday. He preached a good practical sermon. Twenty-one years ago Mr. Reid was a little stammering boy going to school to the Herald editor at Pocahtontas, but by hard study and close application Mr. Reid is now one of our best young Methodist preachers. We note much improvement in his thought and delivery since last we heard him.

A. M. Rice of the Cape had business in Jackson, yesterday. Mr. Rice tells us that there are several hold ups in the Cape now. The latest was one that occurred last week when two men tried to hold up himself and wife as they were going home. Mr. Rice asked the gentlemen what they wanted and one of them looked at him, and either discovered that he was not the man wanted or thought that they would not molest him in the presence of his wife, and they said, "nothing," and walked on. Citizens have no other remedy for such cattle than to prepare themselves and make a finish of these intruders as they present their claims.

A. M. Spradling has been appointed assistant prosecuting attorney and will have his office in the new court house. All wishing his services can find him there at all times. Mr. Spradling is a fine young lawyer and is the right man for the place.

Judge B. F. Davis of the Cape says the saloons must go out of politics or go out of business. Charles Nagel, Republican National committeeman said the same thing and we have heard it said that Governor elect-Hadley has said the same thing. Now this seems to be the opinion of several who know, but to accomplish the result is another thing.

Rabbits!

This is rabbit time. Goodwin & Jean wants everyone you can kill.

Attention Preachers.

We invite all ministers of the Gospel to meet Monday, January 4th, at 10 A. M., in the Presbyterian church at Jackson to consider the advisability of organizing a Cape Co. Ministerial Association for mutual improvement. If impossible to attend write a note expressing your opinion.
